

INTER-INSTITUTIONAL ONLINE COURSES

Jesuits universities and centres of higher learning in Europe and Lebanon

Winter 2023

The Inter-Institutional Online Courses Programme allows students from the Kircher Network to enroll in online courses offered by the universities and faculties participating in the initiative.

How to apply?

Contact the international office of your institution

BENEFITS OF THE PROGRAM

FOR STUDENTS

- Study with a broader network of professors and peers
- Learn from comparative approaches to various topics
- Improve their language skills
- Prepare for or experience a semester abroad
- Connect and get a sense of belonging to the global Ignatian community of students and alumni.

FOR PROFESSORS

- Add an international teaching experience to their curricula
- Teach to a broader range of students from Europe and Lebanon
- Get a sense of belonging to the global Ignatian academic community.

FOR UNIVERSITIES AND CENTRES

- Internationalize their courses
- Promote the visibility of their universities and centres
- Share their Online Courses with other Universities within the Kircher Network without the bureaucratic difficulties
- Offer an international academic experience to their students and faculty members

A platform for providing an international academic experience from home

STUDENTS' EXPERIENCES

Alina Ellis
Sankt Georgen Graduate School of Philosophy and Theology

"For me it was so inspiring, as we learned from so many different experts on the field"

Andrzej Skupień
Akademia Ignatianum

"I encourage everyone to enroll, and specially for those who are not able to travel and study abroad, to feel this international unique atmosphere"